LOVE ME LITTLE LOVE ME LONG

LOVE ME LITTLE, LOVE ME LONG.

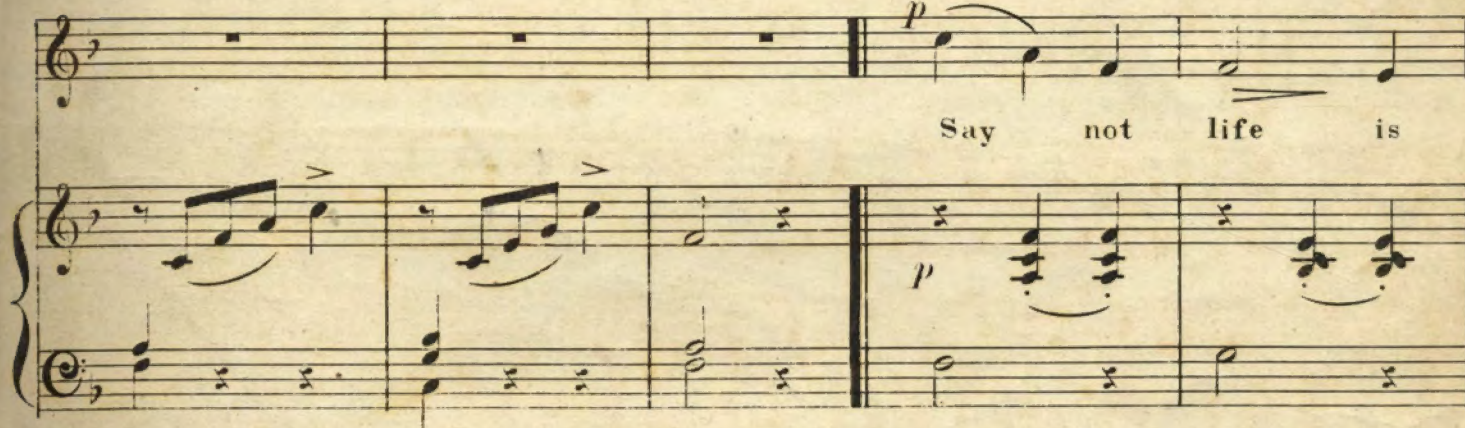

GEORGE LINLEY.

Allegretto Grazioso.

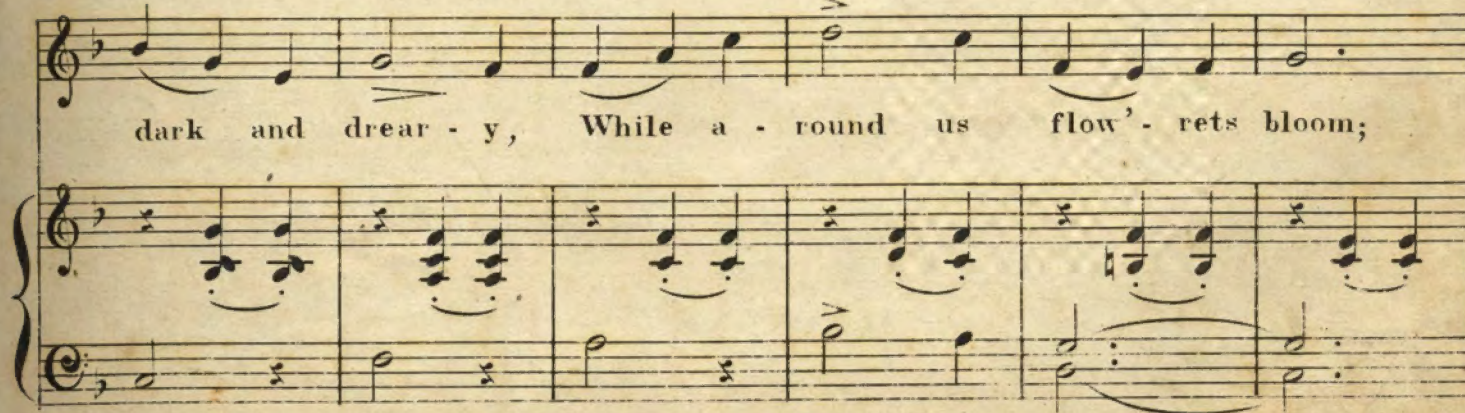

2. Yes! 'tis love can

Say not life is

soothe and cheer us, Down the thorny vale of life;

dark and dreary, While around us flow'ers bloom;

Bet - ter far a peace - ful cot - tage, Than a palace

All is bright where Love a - bid - eth, His fond smile can

rall:

full of strife; I am hap - py, while fate leaves me One kind

all il - lume; Is there not a spell in beau - ty, Bow we heart to warm - ly prize, While the light of pure af - fee - tion not be - fore her shrine? Is the cold - est heart not wa - ken'd

Beams with - in those gen - tle eyes

By the pow'r of song di - vine?

rall:

cres:

Then, no more, &c.

a tempo.

Then, no more be sad and wea - ry, When a - mid the world's cold throng, If thou hear'st one soft voice whis - per, "Love me lit - tle love me long;" "Love me lit - tle, love me long."
